

The Home Depot
Executive Offices
2455 Paces Ferry Road
Atlanta, GA 30339
USA
770-433-8211

Lonndon Seely
Director
Global Logistics
Asset Protection

Biography

Lonndon Seely is Director of Global Logistics Asset Protection for the Home Depot. She assumed this position in June 2003 and is responsible for the Asset Protection programs for distribution centers within the United States, Canada and Mexico.

Previous to her employment with The Home Depot, Lonndon was employed w/ Gap Inc. as the Global Supply Chain Director of Asset Protection. Lonndon's area of responsibility was for all three brands (Gap, Old Navy and Banana Republic) within the United States and Canada. Lonndon Spent three years w/ Gap Inc., initially as a Regional Manager to handle the Midwest division but was promoted within six months to the Director position. Prior to Gap Inc. Lonndon was a District manager in the stores for Marshall Fields Department Stores (A Target corp. company) in Chicago, IL.

Lonndon earned a Bachelor's Degree in Criminology and Sociology from the Kansas State University and is currently pursuing a Masters of Science degree in Business and Organizational Behaviors.

Lonndon resides in Chicago, IL.