Dear International Trade Professionals, Retirees and Students interested in the Charleston Women in International Trade organization,

Please join us for our May 2003 meeting! Details are as follows:

- Topic: The Effects of US Customs on a Multinational Manufacturer
- When: Tuesday, May 13, 2003
- Invited Speaker: Ms. Christine Johnson, Senior Manager-Automotive Group/International Trade Department of Robert Bosch Corporation

Biography: Christine Johnson has worked with Bosch for 24 years and was the forerunner in developing their 'in-house' Customs Program. Starting with Duty Drawback for Bosch, Christine Johnson now oversees the entire spectrum of trade from NAFTA & GSP to classification and compliance in the Automotive Division of Bosch. Frankie Bryson and Lora Mayo-Brown will join Christine to educate us about Bosch. Frankie is the Supervisor of NAFTA and has been with Bosch for 3 years. Lora is the Supervisor of the Import Department and has been with Bosch for 10 years. All three of these women have their Customs Broker's License and play a big part in the International Trade Community of Charleston.

MAY 19-23 WORLD TRADE WEEK***

Our mission is to enhance the status of women who work in the field of international trade by presenting educational and networking events to benefit our common goals. These opportunities will be provided with a series of luncheons and seminars. CWIT membership is not restricted by gender or current job description: men, students and retirees are welcome to apply. The only criterion is that you have an interest in international trade and its promotion for Charleston and the state of South Carolina.
