

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION 2005

Deadline for Submission March 11, 2005

Name
	Last	First	Middle
Social Security No.
Home Address
City, State Zip
Phone/Fax
Email
Employer Name (if applicable)
Employer's Address
Employer Phone
Email

High School Attended _____

Anticipated College (or current) _____

Proposed Course of Study (Major / Minor) _____

NOTE: The scholarship is paid to the Financial Aid Department at the institute/university of elected applicant(s).

- Do you presently receive Financial Aid? Yes ___ No ___
If yes, please attach copies of any Financial Aid letters.
- If you do not receive Financial Aid, how do you finance your education?
Myself ___ My Parents ___ Other ___ (please explain) _____

- If you are awarded this scholarship, will you be available to receive it at the CWIT Annual Banquet on April 12, 2005? Yes ___ No ___

Please mail completed application and submission to: Jacqueline H. Adamson, CWIT Awards Chairperson C/O Roanoke Trade Services, Inc., 385 Meeting Street, Suite 115, Charleston, SC 29403 Questions? Call 724-7525

Criteria for 2005 Scholarship Award

There will be two, $500.00 scholarships awarded.

1. Provide a two-page (minimum length), double-spaced essay explaining the importance of international trade and state your goals for working in the international business environment. You must also explain why you believe you should be awarded this scholarship.
2. Applicant must be pursuing a degree in specific to international trade or related course of study.
3. Applicant must be enrolled/enrolling in an accredited school, institution, or college.
4. Applicant must provide an official transcript of grades, with application, if applicable.
5. Applicant must provide a listing of extra curricular activities, civic and community involvement and define accordingly.
6. Applicant need not be a full-time student.
7. Applicant must be nominated by a Charleston Women in International Trade member in good standing.
8. Financial need will be considered.
9. Females and Males are invited to apply.