Who is CWIT and what is CWIT's Mission?

Founded in 2001 as a chapter of the International Organization of Women in International Trade, CWIT is a nonprofit professional organization. Our mission is to enhance the status of women who work in the field of international trade by presenting educational and networking events to benefit our common goals. Membership includes both women and men who share an interest in international trade and are professionals in finance, public relations, government, freight forwarding, international law, agriculture, sales and marketing, import/export, logistics, and transportation.

CWIT offers members a number of sponsorship opportunities, including an annual sponsorship. Contributions from these efforts allow CWIT to become a stronger organization within our local community, supporting Women in International Trade, and those who aspire toward a career in international business and trade. Your sponsorship will allow CWIT to grow its scholarship fund as well as continue trade-related programs. Additionally, your contribution supports the College Of Charleston's Global Initiatives Program - CWIT's joint mentoring program that connects students with experienced professionals and many other events and meetings that support CWIT's mission.

*This letter serves as CWIT's official invoice for the $350.00 annual sponsorship. Checks should be made payable to CWIT and must be received prior to recognition start. Payment by credit card can be arranged or send your check to:
